

alzheimer documentary “sonny boy” makes world premiere in chicago

SONNY BOY is the story of the cross-country journey of Soleil Moon Frye, and her father, Virgil Frye, who is suffering from Alzheimer's disease.

Soleil is best known for playing the title role of TV's PUNKY BREWSTER. Her father was a Golden Gloves boxer as well as an actor, who appeared most memorably in EASY RIDER (pictured above, right).

This journey revisits people and places from Virgil's past, and allows Virgil and his daughter to work through their own conflicts, while forging a new relationship that will inevitably be decimated by Alzheimer's.

Sonny Boy will be making its world premiere at the Chicago International Documentary Film Festival at 7:00 Saturday, April 3 at the Facets Cinematheque, 1517 W. Fullerton Avenue, in Chicago.

Ms. Frye, who directed the film, will be present at the screening. Tickets are on sale now.
